THE CHALLENGE

At scale, pricing is a minefield. Different clients have different negotiated rates, services carry minimums and after-hours rules, and interpreters are paid differently again. Do it by hand and errors—and disputes—are inevitable.

THE SOLUTION

SRH governs it centrally. Rate cards define client and interpreter rates per service and language; minimums, travel, and after-hours rules apply automatically; and every session produces an accurate, itemized invoice and a matching payout.
